

Who is using Vitic?

Vitic is a structure searchable database that offers researchers and scientists rapid access to high-quality toxicity data.

Vitic is used in many different industries in a variety of workflows, including for ICH M7 submissions, skin sensitisation assessment and REACH<sup>2</sup> chemical safety assessments.

Click below to find out more about

